LIVELY SESSION PROMISED OF SEABREEZE TOWN COUNCIL.

Two Factions at Dag- gers Points.

This Evening Decides Whether a Hotel With Closing of Ocean Boulevard.

There will undoubtedly be a rousing meeting at the session of the Common Council in Seabreeze tonight.
Dr. Potter asks for the closing of Ocean boulevard from Grandview over to the ocean so that he can erect a solid fire proof hotel to cost $300,000.
It is to be a corrugated iron and cement structure that will be the marvel of the East Coast.

The Doctor also agrees to build at his own expense a road on both sides of the hotel to the ocean 300 feet from the hotel on his own property.

Every room in it is to have hot and cold soft, and hot and cold sea water.
Each room of itself with its furnishings is to cost $1,000 per room. Some of the press, for an occult reason, seem to be opposed to it, and as this is a sample drawn from the Times-Union, it's worth repeating:

"The proposition from the friends of Dr. Potter that the resident property owners on Ocean boulevard surrender their right of way to the ocean beach on their own street in consideration of the rebuilding of The Clarendon, met with a sturdy and almost solid opposition from river to ocean. The property owners represented that they are denied the one privilege prized and enjoyed by every person who resides or sojourns in the place—free and direct access to the beach; that it would be building up one business at the expense of every other on Ocean boulevard, and result in a general decadence of all other businesses on the street; that the boulevard represented investments of between four and five hundred thousand dollars, and therefore as a business proposition they could not consider closing their ocean approach.

"However, those circulating the petition got signers from the residents on other streets, and it is understood that they will present the petition to the Council at the regular monthly meeting tonight."

But in order to be fair to both sides the names appearing on each petition are here published. It will be noted that Mrs. Jones has signed both petitions just to show there is no hard feeling.

LARGE VOTE FOR PIANO.

The last count in the Bush & Safford piano contest, shows an extremely large vote. The Daytona high school cast over $5,000, and the Elks over 116,000 giving the Hildie Bills a gain of over $5,000 on the Eastern Star. Miss Mary Gille passes Miss McCann.

Outside of Daytona a mighty close finish for second place looks certain, with the Seabreeze high school and the Kingston school giving a neck and neck exhibition. However it is not probable that either contestant will be able to disturb the Wilman's opera house that now so confidently holds the first place position.

Miss Ruby Spaulding passes Miss Alice Daugherty, but no other changes were noticeable.

KINGSTON

KINGSTON, March 5.—Mr. Turner has leased space on the Main street front of his lot on corner Ridgewood and Main, to Jas. Gaines, who is erecting a small house for meat market.
Miss Callie Saffell of Knoxville, R.
S. Hook of Auburn, N. H. and J. Fitzgerald of Boston, all guests of the "Fernandez," took in the down-river excursion to Ponce Park and New Smyrna a few days since, and were delighted with the beautiful scenery of the Halifax river and the quaint old towns.

Mrs. C. B. Burns and family, who have occupied rooms at Mrs. Chaffers for the past two months, left Thursday for the fourth for their home at Easley, S.
C., to the regret of their many friends in Kingston.

Late arrivals at "Gerandle" were Mr. and Mrs. W. M. Alden of Hyannis, Neb. and T. A. Roquemore of Jacksonville.
The revival meetings at the Kingston M. E. Church, closed on Sunday night, last, with quite satisfactory results to the church and community, and we hope that much lasting good has been accomplished.

W. U. Preparing For Races.

W. G. Peebles, Assistant Sup. intend-ent of the Western Union Telegraph Co., Jacksonville, Fla., is in the city looking into conditions to ascertain what the needs of the local office may be during the automobile races. Mr. Peebles is primarily interested in having Daytona "pull off" the greatest racing event that ever happened, and he wants to fit up the local office in shape to properly handle the big event.

CRUISE TO ROCKLEDGE.

The cruising party, consisting of Mr. and Mrs. Asa Paine, Mr. and Mrs. Thos.
H. White, Mr. and Mrs. Louis Koch and Mr. and Mrs. W. E. Blodgett, who went down the river last Tuesday aboard Mr.
Blodgett's new yacht "Swastika," returned to Daytona Thursday afternoon after a very pleasant trip to Rockledge, where they spent Tuesday and Wednesday nights.

TELEGRAPH AGAIN MISSING.

Owing to the severe snow storms through the North the Western Union's through wires are not working and the usual telegraphic press service of the Daily News is again missing today.

Euchre Party.

A most delightful progressive euchre party was held Tuesday evening at The Lyndhurst, on Second avenue, participated in by a number of the guests and invited friends.

There were seven tables of players and prizes for both ladies and gentlemen. The ladies' prizes were won by Mrs. M. Geisler of New York, Mrs. P.
Fragins, also of New York, and Mrs. E.
M. Holman of Fairview avenue; while Charles Wolfesberger of Princeton, Ill., John Davis of New York, and J. Stegkemper of Cleveland, Ohio, carried off the prizes for the gentlemen.

The caretaker of the Steek property, on S. Ridgewood avenue, has been busy this week getting things in shape for the coming of E. M.
Steck, of Pittsburg, in a few days.

Mr. and Mrs. George Simonds, who for the past month have been visiting Mrs. Nellie Simonds, on Orange avenue, left Thursday afternoon for St. Augustine and other points enroute to their home at Rochester, N. Y.

Albert Paul Crosby, of Ashtabula, Ohio, arrived on Wednesday evening and joined the rest of his family who are guests at the Howard. Mr.
Crosby was in Daytona last winter and came this winter because of bad health, having been injured while playing football at a school near Chicago last fall.

QUAINT RELIC OF THE REVOLUTION.

Ancient Wine Set in Walnut Wine Chest, Probably 200 Years Old.

WAS CAPTURED BY A SCOUT.

Probably one of the most interesting and certainly one of the oldest of prized relics of "ye olden times" is a little old, dingy walnut wine chest, which may be seen at the Hankins Drug Store. This rare old relic has now been in the Carter family nearly 130 years, ever since the revolutionary period, and is supposed to have been captured by one of the Carter family, a scout, under General Anthony Wayne at the time of the evacuation of Philadelphia by the English. One hundred and thirty years is a long time for a relic so much prized to remain in one family, handed down from one generation to another.

It is now the property of Mrs. G. G.
Carter, a surviving member of the family and whether it will be bequeathed to a Carter descendant, or may at last pass into other hands the writer was not informed.

This chest was brought to Daytona from Virginia. The Carters were early Virginia settlers and it has been told from generation to generation that a Carter scout, under command of Maj.
Anthony Wayne, captured the prize as the British made a hasty departure for Philadelphia, the old Colonial town.

It was the property of a British officer, and was no doubt brought over filled with the choice wines to be had in that day.

The walnut case is hand-made as also are the lock, hinges and nails. The case contains six quart bottles, three at either end. In the center between these quart bottles are six pint bottles. Over these pint bottles in a tray are two tumblers and three wine glasses.

All these bottles, glasses and tumblers are exquisitely decorated and they are of the finest quality.

In these days of shams and counterfeits it is a real joy to look upon the genuine article whose claim to distinction is authentic and unchallenged. It is hoped that this prized chest may fall into appreciative hands and remain yet many generations a mute yet striking witness of the stirring scenes which took place when this goodly land was wrested from the grasp of little England.

JURY SAYS MURDER.

The coroner's jury which has been investigating the death of W. B. Ford, whose body was found in Jacksonville one day last week, yesterday returned a verdict of murder. The deceased was a brother-in-law of R. H. Lessner, of this city, and the latter went to Jacksonville upon receiving word of Mr. Ford's tragic death. The only motive that can be attributed for the murder is robbery.

INSPECTION OF COMPANY K.

Adjutant-General J. Clifford R. Foster has issued orders for the inspection of the Florida State Troops, Company K and the headquarters of the Second Battalion, Second Regiment, will be inspected March 25, at 8:15 p. m.

Inspection will be conducted for the State by Col. Walter P. Corbett, Inspector General, and for the United States by Major William F. Hancock, of the Coast Artillery Corps.

Red Men Active.

Osceola Tribe, No. 21, Imp. O. R. M., is a rapidly growing organization. At the regular meeting of the Tribe Wednesday night six candidates, J. B. Garrison, C. R. M. Sheppard, Nevil McClanlan, R. C. Adams, W. A. Pitcher and L.
J. Crews received the Adoption degree and there are ten more applicants, awaiting election to membership, awaiting initiation. This will bring the total membership to about seventy. After the degree work the usual supper was served in the lodge room.

Miss Alice J. Norton, of Bristol, spent the day, Tuesday, at Ormond.

Miss Ruth Taylor, formerly of the Crystal theatre, is now singing the illustrated songs at the Gator.

H. T. McClellan is building quite

Dr. A. J. Perkins, of North Ridgewood avenue, left Thursday afternoon on her return to her home at Plainfield, Ill., after a pleasant three weeks visit with Dr. Perkins and family.

Miss Ella Willaume is confined to her home on north Beach street with an attack of the measles. Dr. Rawlings is attending her. Miss Willaume was taken sick at the tent of the C. W. Park dramatic company on Tuesday evening.

WESTERN UNION PEOPLE PREPARING FOR THE RACES.

TROUBLES DON'T COME SINGLY.

Eight Expert Code Men On.

"It never rains but it pours." That is what the Smallwood family, of Magnolia avenue, must think.

A little over a week ago one youthful son of Mr. and Mrs. Smallwood was run over by an automobile in front of the Ridgewood Hotel and the eggs that he was carrying were smeared far and wide.
That boy is getting well fast, although one leg was rather badly burned by the muffler.

Now another Smallwood boy, this one, a little older, is carrying his right arm in a sling, his trouble being a broken collar bone as the result of a hard fall when his bicycle hit a mud hole. This boy was carrying milk instead of eggs, but it spread over even a greater space, though not quite so thick.

Dr. Stewart set the injured member and the boy is now getting about alright, but he says that it yet hurts him, even for him to talk.

ADVERTISING FOR YOUR LOST ARTICLES

Is a Game Of Chance; All Depends On The Character Of The Finder.

It may be recalled by the readers of the Daily News that there have been an unusual number of advertisements lately of "lost" articles of various kinds. The city-editor is frequently approached at his desk and interrogated as to the probability of the recovery of an article by inserting a small advertisement, offering a reward for its return.

It is always explained that recovery of lost articles depends upon the character of the person who does the finding.
There is one class, a large class, no new-paper reaches and it frequently happens they get the lost prizes. The principles of honesty are not sufficiently impressed upon them in their formative stages.
There has been abundant evidence in confirmation of this conclusion of late.
For instance: A gentleman came in the Daily News office Wednesday and advertised for an alligator handbag. The newsboys had hardly completed their rounds before the editor was approached by a boy who said he saw a young negro man alight from his bicycle in front of the Social Hall of the Congregational church, pick up such bag as advertised and ride away with it.

Such finds as this partake of the nature of a theft, and lost articles getting into such hands are seldom recovered.

On the other hand there are people who upon finding a lost article watch for an advertisement for it that they may restore it to the rightful owner; failing to see such advertisement they drop in and advertise for owner.

The Daily News has been instrumental in restoring a number of lost articles. In many cases the articles fell into the wrong hands.

Anticipating Demands During Races Are Making Preparations To Supply Them.

Only two weeks from Tuesday next and the greatest racing event ever known in the South, if not in the world, will be in progress on the world-famed Daytona Beach. As the time draws near steps are quickened and activity accentuates.

W. G. Peebles, of Jacksonville, Assistant Superintendent of the Western Union Telegraph Company, is in the city, conferring with Daytonians who are in closest touch with matters pertaining to the big automobile and aro-plane carnival, and making such preparations as are deemed necessary to handle the news feature which the outside world will demand in detail.

After a conference with parties interested locally Mr. Peebles decides that he will run four Western Union wires out to the "Press stand" on the beach and that he will bring eight "code" men—experts who transmit such news in a condensed form—and the various newsgathering agencies represented will be afforded every facility for supplying their clients with news as fast as it is reeled off—and that will be a kilometer about every quarter minute!

The Western Union wires will be carried to the press stand over the East Florida Telephone Company's poles, a concession granted by the local company.

Arrangements have been made to locate all the press representatives in this city and there is every indication that Daytona will get the biggest advertising she ever experienced, and if "Daytona" doesn't become a household word, especially in the automobile world, it will be through no fault of the press representatives. It is expected that there will be at least fifteen press representatives, and when it is understood a representative of the Associated Press, the United Press, Scripps-McRae League, etc., covering each hundreds of great dailies, you have an idea of what such advertising means. To go down in your pockets and pay for this advertising would cost more than the combined costs of the waterworks, new school building and street paving.

A few people became somewhat alarmed over articles which appeared recently in New York and Chicago papers which expressed a doubt about their being any races on Daytona Beach this year because of a controversy between "Senator" W. J. Morgan, the promoter of the races for the Florida East Coast Automobile Association and the Automobile Association of America, the latter a corporation organized—not for their health, exactly—under the laws of New Jersey.
The A. A. claim many prerogatives and attempt to domineer racing events whether promoted on Florida beach sands, Louisiana shell roads, Georgia clay drives or over northern courses of whatever composition.

It seems that as time passes they demand more and more of a rake-off for their "sanction" and at last reached a limit where it is thought the "divvy" they exact is out of proportion to the worth of their official sanction.

In order to do away with hard feelings and satisfy every one concerned "Senator" Morgan paid $100 for a sanction in his own name and now everything is lovely.

GENERAL ARTHUR PAGET AND MRS. PAGET.

An event of much importance in society circles in New York city was the recent visit of General Arthur Paget and his wife. Mrs. Paget is the daughter of Mrs. Parson Stevens, and her husband is one of the most influential men in England. His social position is equal to that of any one in the realm outside the royal family.

Seabreeze News
SEABREEZE, March 3.—The Fair at the Congregational Church Wednesday afternoon and evening brought handsome results for the past months of earnest planning and working by the ladies of the Sewing Circle. The weather was fine which accounted in part for the large attendance from Daytona as well as from our peninsula towns. The ladies were highly complimented on their decorations, which consisted of holly berries, kumats and native greens. There were six tables, five tables, and a flower stand, the greatest attraction of which was a generous bunch of calla lilies donated, and where roses, sweet violets and nasturtiums vied with each other in beauty and fragrance. Every booth was made as beautiful as possible, and the display of fancy articles was unusually large and tempting. The Daytona Band appeared early in the evening and rendered fine selections to the enjoyment of the company. The ladies appreciated this courtesy very much. The exact amount of receipts is not yet known, but the amount reached $306 at last report and the expenses were comparatively small. For a society composed of ladies of a denominational, the work has been carried on most harmoniously and systematically, and not only should credit be given the resident ladies, but many of the transient visitors contributed most liberally in work as well as money.

Doings at Daytona Beach
DAYTONA BEACH, March 3.—One of the very pleasant musicals of last week (Saturday afternoon) was the Mendelssohn recital by the people of Mrs. Marjorie Brooks at her studio, on Seabreeze avenue. Miss Winifred Aman read a short sketch of the musician's grandparents and parents. Willie Manning took up the theme of his childhood; Gertrude Bishop of his youth; Lillian Kirby of his home; short sketches of his life by Leota Coburn. The following musical program was rendered:
"On Song's Bright Wings"—Miss Mattie Veilington.
"Andante—Cantabile"—Miss Aliene Aman.
"O, For the Wings of a Dove" (song)—Miss Laura Hyman.
"A Mendelssohn Night's Dream" and "Dance of the Clowns"—Mrs. Brooks and Miss Mattie Veilington.
"Spring Song"—Miss Gladys Wannink.
"Glistening Dreams"—Mrs. Brooks.
Mr. Homewood and daughter, Miss Homewood, stopped at Pinehurst for a day enroute to St. Augustine. They had spent the winter at Merritt's Island. Mrs. Nelson and son, Chadwick, are spending the winter at the home of C. I. Horn. They came South for Chadwick's health which he has regained in our balmy air and fresh salt breezes.
Elder R. W. Parmelee and W. H. Branson have moved their large and small tents from Daytona to Seabreeze avenue, Daytona Beach, and will begin a series of meetings tonight. Mrs. Branson and little son are with Mr. Branson, and are occupying the small tent.
Mrs. Polzin, Mr. Harroun's daughter, who has been visiting with her father for some two weeks past, left Wednesday for her home in Chicago.
Mrs. E. F. Kenney, Brooklyn, N. Y., a Chester Varney, wife and boy Detroit; Mr. and Mrs. A. Z. Converse, Chattanooga; are recent arrivals at the Daytona Beach Hotel.
Among the recent arrivals at the Seaside Inn the following are noted: J. L. Spear Portland, Me.; Mr. and Mrs. O. R. Barnett Chicago; Walter R. Dennison, New London Conn.; Mrs. Edw. B. Smith, St. Paul, Minn.; J. L. Woodward Richmond, Va.; J. L. Fairchild and wife, Syracuse, N. Y.

The Modern
Seven Wonders

Daytona's Incomparable Ocean Beach.
One of Daytona's crowning glories is her incomparable beach. No one who ever set foot upon its smooth, packed sands; no one who ever pedaled a bicycle over its expanse; no one who ever drove a prancing pair of horses and listened to the popping of their steel shoes upon its asphaltum-like face; no one who ever steered a high-power automobile down the broad stretch of wave-washed and surf-packed sand but realized that it is a world-beater, a world-wonder. Go stand upon this wide speedway and see the happy souls flit by in joyous mood, and answer whether this is not one of the seven modern wonders.

The Placid, Pellicud Halifax River.
Where think you is water with more picturesque surroundings? Nearly a mile wide, fringed with tropical vegetation, artistic cottages with roomy ve-randa's looking out upon her bosom, gamey food fishes in countless numbers beckoning, as it were, to those with rod and reel; her bosom flecked with duck and eel and snowy-winged sea birds, which sit about as if for the sport of bobbing upon her waves; watch that lubberly old white headed pelican perching a fat mullet, and that fish hawk sitting upward with his floundering load he snatched from the water.
See the beautiful launches, spick and span, their hampers and lockers bulging with refreshments both solid and liquid ready for a cruise upon her beautiful surface. Take out your field glass and sweep the river from Ormond bridge to Ponce Park light house, then say whether the Halifax isn't a thing of beauty and a joy forever, and one of the modern wonders.

The Enchantingly Picturesque Ridgewood.
Ridgewood avenue is upon the crest of a broad ridge, straight as the crow flies, and the wide-spreading branches of the heavy-trunked live-oaks extend their great arms across this magnificent vista, forming an arch, and from these extended arms great festoons of Spanish moss sway as the trade winds from tropic seas fan them. Looking straight ahead down this white shell street one has the impression of a fairy path with elfish draperies, but as you move along and cast an eye first to the right and then to the left you see distinguished cottage homes in the most delightful settings.

Surpassing Beauty of Our Cottage Homes.
No one of Daytona's attractions, perhaps commands more nearly universal attention and praise than does the artistic cottage. The owners of these charming villas hail from every corner of the country and they bring their own architectural plans and build upon them and as the architecture of one section of the country differs from the architecture of another so do our homes differ in outward appearance and structural beauty from one another. There are no monotonous rows of strikingly similar buildings but the eye, as it sweeps by, is treated to a kaleidoscopic change which keeps the mind wondering "What next?"

Streets and Pavements the Most and Best.
Why the Architect of the Universe chose to give to Daytona the most admirable, the most picturesque natural setting of all the cities of the South is not revealed but that such is a fact must be apparent to the most superficial observer. With such lavish wealth of natural beauty it became an easy thing for the hand of man to give the little finishing touches which have brought out the colors and outlines of the big picture.

Man did all this in the laying out of the streets with their wide margins of parkage, the entire city becomes a great park
And as for pavements, pavements that look and act like granite,—where else between the eastern and western seas are so many miles in proportion to inhabitants? Till some unheard-of place reports more and better, Daytona throws down the gauntlet to the world.

Squirrels, Flowers, Birds and Fruits.
Whatever one's shortcomings and however indifferent or even callous one may be to many things, the mere mention of "squirrels and flowers, birds and fruits" will send a thrill that is reflected in distended pupils and pricked ears.
For every visitor with a spare "goober" there is a bunny ready to come out and accept your gift. He will sit bolt upright and gnaw into the meat, casting furtive, saucy glances at you meanwhile.
Flowers! Usually fresh and blooming the year 'round. In one yard roses of variegated hues predominate, another has a penchant for the poinsettia and the premises are aflame; another is hidden in a jungle of tall cane.
The birds flit in, and with their joyous notes help to give fullness and symmetry to the picture.
As for fruits, choice citrus fruits, Daytona yields the palm to none for quality and quantity per acre. There are scores of citrus groves in proximity to the city, branches bending to the earth with their burdens of luscious golden globes.

The Fastest Autos And The Finest Out.
Here is where world's records for speed are broken with every recurring season.
Autos the biggest, the fastest and the biggest are on daily parade and the big show is as free as the pure artesian water from the thousand flowing wells.
It is a continuous show with constantly shifting scene. You will probably catch the spirit and when you do the roads and the beach are yours. The Florida sunshine is free, the balmy ocean breezes are free, the birds and squirrels and flowers are free, the sparkling fountain water is free and you will have to go down in your wallet only for coin for the auto and bed and board.

This is no fanciful picture; it's all here. It is drawing other thousands and holding them enthralled, it will charm and hold you. Come and see.

St. Augustine and His Flower.
St. Augustine of Hippo, the great doctor of the church, whose festival falls on Aug. 28, is a sadly neglected saint among modern ritualists and even occasionally confused with his namesake, who insulted the British bishops.
Yet he is pronounced by Hooker "without any equal" and regarded by Har-nack as "the first modern man." He has been better honored in the floral world, for to him is dedicated the goldenrod, or woundwort (Solidago virgaurea). Old Gerard, with whom this was a favorite remedy, tells us that goldenrod fetched a high price as a foreign herb until discovered growing near London, when the plant was neglected. He adds the caustic comment, "Far fetch and dear bought is best for ladies" or for fantastical physicians." Before tobacco the goldenrod also furnished snuff for our medicinal forefathers. — Westminster Gazette.

Schmidt's Hotel.
New arrivals at Schmidt's Hotel yesterday were: I. J. Arnold, Baltimore; H. H. Walker, Chicago; Chas. A. Chafee and Chas. M. Sam, Middletown, Conn.; E. F. Selling, New Orleans.
The troupe of children from the Actors Child League gave an entertainment at Schmidt's Hotel last evening; after which a collection was taken up.

The Bennett.
Recent arrivals at The Bennett are:
G. R. Dotson and wife, Mr. and Mrs. Jerome H. Smith, Toledo, O.; Mr. and Mrs.
W. B. Van Houten, Willard B. Van Houten, Jr., New York; Mrs. C. E. Hitt, Miss J. E. Hitt, Dillen, N. Y.; Mrs. J. F.
Saitz, Miss K. L. Saitz, Pittsburgh, Pa.;

D. Brown, New York; Mrs. G. E. Newell Pawtucket, R. I.; H. K. Barnes, A Small, Macon, Ga.

Something entirely new, a military card party, was given at The Ridgew-wood last evening, progressive euchre being the game.
The parlors were tastefully decorated for the occasion with flags and palms. After the game, for which eight prizes given, a delightful buffet supper was served in the dining room.

Palm Beach Hotel.
The steamer Constitution arrived in this balmy clime and most of its passengers are happily at home in Hotel Palm Beach while some went across to the town of West Palm Beach. Hotel Palm Beach is on the island in the resort proper adjoining the Royal Poinciana hotel and is amid a tropical scene of flowers and palms. The Constitution lands at Hotel Palm Beach, which is large enough for every one to get well taken care of. Dancing at night usually is proper but bridge whist usually has the call among the older ones who come in on the Daytona-Palm Beach boat line. The trip down the jungle and up to the Garden of Edna is usually the first trip made here, but there are other trips, as itemized on the program of "What to do and see at Palm Beach" gotten out gratis by the Hotel Palm Beach management. There are crowds of guests at Hotel Palm Beach who will return on the return trip of the Constitution to visit Daytona.

What the Duke Meant.
His grace the Duke of Argyll was addressing a select company in a London drawing room on the present state of things in South Africa. "I look forward to the time," he said, "when the Englishman will marry the Boer girl and have an English wife as well!" Respectable dowagers looked their surprise, and the men began to smile.
Then the duke carefully explained that he meant, of course, that the Boer girl should become an Englishwoman to all intents and purposes.—Reynolds' Newspaper.

A Source of Joy.
"What seems to be the matter with Mrs. Brown that she's ailing so?"
"Why, poor thing, she's got one of those newfangled diseases."
"She has? My, how fortunate she is, to be sure. Here I've had nothing more stylish than lumbago, and I'm three years older than she is."—Detroit Free Press.

Smart Set English.
The speech of the smart man and woman sufficiently betrays the modern attitude. To speak good English is middle class. The modern vocabulary is very small, and the greater part of it is composed of slang.—Black and White.

It is one thing to know a fact; it is another to know how to use it. Ten women know a thing where one is alive. The others don't use their knowledge. Every woman knows "Dorothy Dodd" Shoes, but she can't get any benefit from her knowledge unless she uses the knowledge.

Fresh Water From the Ocean.
Mamma, the principal port of the Bahama Islands, the center of the pearl fisheries, gets its fresh water from the ocean. Visitors often note boats anchored a few hundred yards from the shore, the boatmen engaged in drawing fresh water from springs at the bottom of the sea. These springs well up strongly at a considerable depth, and the entire water supply of the town is obtained from them. The fresh water is procured in two ways—either in a goatskin water bag, which a diver takes down with him and carefully closes before bringing it to the surface, or by letting down long hollow pipes of bamboo, weighted at the lower end, through which the water rises up uncontaminated to the surface.—Argonaut.

Examining Wedding Gifts.
"Women viewing another woman's wedding presents say things which are likely to be misinterpreted," said the bachelor who declares he hates weddings, but always goes when invited, according to the Washington Post. "and other things which no favorable interpretation would make complimentary to the bride or to the groom. Like the way of the sea, I suppose. Now, why is it that the most common remark of the women who are inspecting the layout of silver and cut glass and other gifts more or less useful, is 'What a lot of presents she got?' They don't mean anything unkind, but the inference an uninitiated onlooker would draw is that they wonder why she got so many, as if by rights she shouldn't have had half so many. Of course they vary the remark. 'What a lucky girl she has one, as if she would like to add, 'Some persons have too much luck.' And another says, 'I wonder where they all came from.' Implying almost as if the bride couldn't have enough friends to make so many gifts and must have sent some of them to herself just to making a showing."

The Mere Formality Won.
"Yes, sir," said the pale, youthful suitor; "I have come to ask you for your daughter's hand. She is fair as Nike, charming."
"Is that Mary you're talking about?" asked papa.
"Yes, sir. It is a mere formality, I know, this asking for your daughter's hand, but we thought it would be pleasing to you if it were observed."
Mary's papa stiffened.
"And may I inquire," he asked, "who suggested that asking my consent to Mary's marriage was a mere formality?"
"You may, sir," replied the young man simply. "It was Mary's mother."

World's Cleanest Soldiers.
The Japanese soldier considers it a disgrace to be dirty. Soldiers of other nationalities are not always overparticular, but as Mr. Kipling has sung: Oh, east is east, and west is west, and never the twain shall meet.
However, the Japanese military man is not provided by a grateful and beneficent government with a portable bath, so when on active service he has to set his wits to work in order to obtain the necessary adjuncts to his ablutions.
The Chinese, for reasons of their own, manufacture long and large jars whose diameter is that of a western main drain. It occurred to a bright Japanese that one might just as well have a bath standing up as lying down.
Accordingly he and his comrades in terred a jar, built a furnace beneath it and filled it with water. Soon a boiling hot bath bubbled before them. Initiators spring into being and subsequently into similar baths.—Bystander.

Paraguay's Sweet Plant.
A herb called by the natives canabe, but botanically Eupatorium rebaudianum, grows wild in Paraguay. It is remarkable for its sweetness. Indeed, the native name means the "sugar plant." It grows along the borders of the river Amambay and attains a height of only about five inches. The smallest bit of this plant when placed upon the tongue produces a surprisingly sweet flavor, which it is said, lasts for hours. The saccharine power is much greater than that of sugar.—Youth's Companion.

The Sleepers Seven.
"There were seven of the twelve," said one of the discharged jurors in speaking of the matter next morning, "who didn't want to sleep themselves and wouldn't let the rest of us sleep. Whenever we dropped into a doze they came around and shook us till we were wide awake again."
"And you had to submit, I suppose, for they constituted the majority?"
"Yes. They were a tousing majority," said the hollow-eyed juror, with a pensive attempt to be facetious.—Chicago Tribune.

A Life Note.
"Life is what we make it," said the philosopher.
"Alas," exclaimed the practical one, "that we can't make it a million!"
We ask Providence to make us thankful for what we receive and then go to figuring on just how much Providence is going to send us.—Atlanta Constitution.

The Chinaman and His Dragon.
If a Chinaman wishes for happiness and peace in this world and the next he feels obliged to consult his majesty the dragon as to where his house shall be built and his grave be made. Through the earth, so say the Chinese, flow two currents—the dragon and the tiger. Now, for a man to have good fortune in life or, as he would say in "pigeon English," to "catch the chance," his house must be put in a certain position in reference to these currents. If he is to rest quietly in his grave, that also must be correctly placed. So called "wise men" make a business of choosing favorable sites for homes and graves, professing by means of a wand and incantations and other kinds of tomfoolery to be able to detect the presence of the dragon and the tiger and to tell in what direction they flow.

Officeholders.
"Well, there's one thing to be said for public servants."
"What's that?"
"That you hire one you never have any trouble keeping him."—Cleveland Leader.

C. A. B. Tice arrived Thursday night from Rock Hill, S. C., where he is at present manager of The Record news and job office, and will spend a week here with his family at his home on Magnolia avenue.
"Lost"—Black brooch with white face, surrounded by two gold serpents. $10 reward. Return to Ridgewood Hotel. 80-3t
Mr. and Mrs. Hersey Morgan, of Urbana, Ohio, arrived yesterday from the South, where they have been visiting with relatives on an orange farm near Miami. Mr. and Mrs. Morgan are guests at The Parkers in Miami.
The Park Dramatic Company played "The American Girl" to a small but appreciative audience last night. The cold evening undoubtedly kept many away, the management however stated that the tent would be warmed hereafter. "Col. Bolter and Twister" caused much laughter and little "Virginia" drew well merited applause. The play this afternoon will be "When Hopper was Sidetracked," and tonight "Camille."
Saratoga Inn Garage, cars stored by day or week. Six-cylinder, seven-passenger Welch and four-passenger Elmore for charter, hour or trip. Rates reasonable.
